

Home School/High School Seminar

Each Thursday of every week

7:00 PM

There are many excellent reasons for choosing to teach your children at home.

1. There is now incontestable evidence that, on average, children who's education is Parent Directed fare better academically than children of either public or private schools.
2. Home educated children are spared the corrupting environment of the public school peer-oriented classroom and thus are benefited socially.
3. Any home schooling family will tell you that one of the greatest benefits of the process is the way that family bonds are strengthened.
4. Home educating families prosper spiritually. Parents are able to guide their children in Godly paths as they protect them from the immorality and falsehood so prevalent in public schools and teach them the Bible and its application to life.
5. However, the best reason for choosing home education is that it is God's revealed plan for raising our children. The Bible knows no other system of education:

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

2 Timothy 3:16,17

"According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:"

2 Peter 1:3

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

Psalms 119:105

The purpose of separation is that we, as God's people, might (a) persevere in salvation (1 Timothy 4:16; Revelation 12:14-17), faith (1 Timothy 1:19; 6:10; 20-21), and holiness (John 17:14-21; 2 Corinthians 7:1), (b) live wholly for God as our Lord and Father (Matthew 22:37; 2 Corinthians 6:16-18), and (c) convince the unbelieving world of the truth and blessings of the gospel (John 17:21; Philippians 2:15).

If we separate ourselves properly, God Himself rewards us by drawing near with His protection, blessing, and Fatherly care. He promises to be everything a good Father should be. He will be our Counselor and Guide; He will love and cherish us as His own children (2 Corinthians 6:16-18).

The refusal of believers to separate themselves from evil will inevitably result in loss of: fellowship with God (2 Corinthians 6:16), acceptance by the Father (6:17), and our rights as children (6:18 Romans 8:15-16).

In the "world," believers are aliens and strangers. They must come out of the world, not be conformed to the world, not love the world, overcome the world, hate the world's evil, die out to the world, and be delivered from the world (1 John 2:15).

We must separate ourselves completely from the world and purify ourselves ...from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God (2 Corinthians 7:1).
